Meghalayan Age Limited (MAL), a Govt of Meghalaya undertaking invites eligible individuals to apply for the fellowship programme under Community-Based Rural Tourism.

Last date for Applying: on or before 31st March 2021 by 5:00 PM.

Background

This initiative from the Meghalayan Age Limited (MAL) is to enable mobilizing of local tourism practitioners to disseminate information as well as share knowledge on community-based rural tourism and provide assistance to the local community, thereby developing and improving the tourism in the state.

Selection

Under this fellowship programme, the practitioners from different rural areas will be selected from among the applicants. The selection process for the role will be based on a walk-in interview with the panels from the Tourism Department & MAL.

Desired Qualification

The applicants should be minimum of a graduate with sound knowledge on the concept of community-based tourism with good writing and communication skills. Knowledge of a local language either Khasi, Garo or Jaintia beside English is a basic requirement. It is also expected that these applicants have a bike/motor vehicle and can commute on their own without hindrances whenever required. Preference will be given to applicants from rural areas.

Deliverables

The tourism practitioner selected under this fellowship programme will work under MAL and their role includes but not limited to talking with local communities and explaining about community-based tourism, identifying the uniqueness of the particular village and building tourism strategy based on it. Their primary role will be to build clusters of villages with potential of rural tourism opportunities. They will also act as a bridge between the Government and the local community in sharing the vision and working towards a common goal. Besides, the practitioner will help in getting the local society or organization registered through a hand holding process such as making their Applications and getting them registered through the RCS Office etc.

Compensation

Each selected fellow will be paid a grant of up to 2 lakh rupees on a quarterly basis subject to the fulfillment of all the deliverables.

The engagement will be for a period of 1 year.
